How It All Started

Covid-19 disruptions and high turnover impacted the client's ability to maintain distribution center operations. Local HR needed support and corporate HR could not supply extra bandwidth. They sought a partnership to add workforce agility to deliver quality and timely talent.

"Advanced RPO has contributed significantly to our company's ability to be staffed and service our customers. Their team is responsive, flexible, communicative, and action-oriented." - VP of TA

"Advanced has been a great partner. They proactively identify problems, recommend solutions, and continue to be flexible to achieve results. They're communicative and professional." - Director of HR
